What Else Do We Need to Know?

- We welcome you to take photos in the core exhibition. Photography without flash is permitted in most of the museum, with the exception of our two temporary exhibition spaces.
- We are a cellphone- and food-free space. Silencing phones makes the MOCA experience more enjoyable for everyone.
- We are accessible. Please inquire at the Visitor Services Desk for any assistance you may require. All galleries and facilities are wheelchair accessible. Restrooms are located one floor below the galleries and are accessible via lift.

Making the Best of Your Walking Tour

- Eat a snack beforehand—you need energy for walking around Chinatown!
- Wear comfortable shoes so that your feet stay blister-free.
- In hot weather, consider bringing a hat, sunglasses and a water bottle to keep hydrated.
- In wet weather, bring an umbrella and/or raincoat.
- Stay close to your guide at all times.
- Pay attention and take it all in!

Group Reservation Policies

Reservations for groups must be made at least four weeks in advance.

- Minimum of 8 and maximum of 25 people (15 people for walking tours) per time slot. If your group is larger than 25 (or 15 for walking tours), we ask that you make arrangements to divide your group and schedule two or more separate visits.
- We welcome groups with special needs. Please contact the Education Department at education@mocanyc.org for information regarding programs and policies.
- We require a completed payment slip to hold your reservation. If we do not receive your payment slip two weeks prior to your visit, we reserve the right to cancel your reservation.
- Payment can be made by credit card, cash, check, or NYC DOE Purchase Order. Please make checks payable to 'Museum of Chinese in America'. If you need us to issue a partial refund of your check after the visit, please allow 5-7 business days for processing.
- If your group must cancel its visit, the museum requires a minimum of 3 business days' advance notice, or we will charge a $30 cancellation fee per scheduled tour.
- If your group number changes, please be sure to contact the Education Department in advance to let us know.
- Please arrive ON TIME to the museum. Groups arriving late will miss all or part of their program in order to respect our museum scheduling.
- Upon arrival, the group leader should check in at the front desk while the group waits quietly outside or in the lobby. Please keep clear of the main entrance.
- For student groups, please have no more than 5 students visit the museum store at once.
