

MONKEY KING

BOOKMARK

Color your own Sun Wukong bookmark, then cut it out along the thick black lines!

Punch out the hole in the top for a tassel or string...

... or color this one for a string-less bookmark!

MONKEY KING

BOOKMARK

Let's make a bookmark based on the Monkey King!

You'll need:

- a piece of cardboard and our bookmark template
- our monkey face template
- liquid glue
- a marker
- two different kinds of ribbon or string
- hole punch or pencil
- googly eyes (optional)

1. Cut out and trace our bookmark template onto a piece of thin cardboard. Then, cut out the cardboard bookmark.
2. Cut out the monkey face template and draw on eyes, nose, and a mouth. You can use googly eyes , too, if you want!

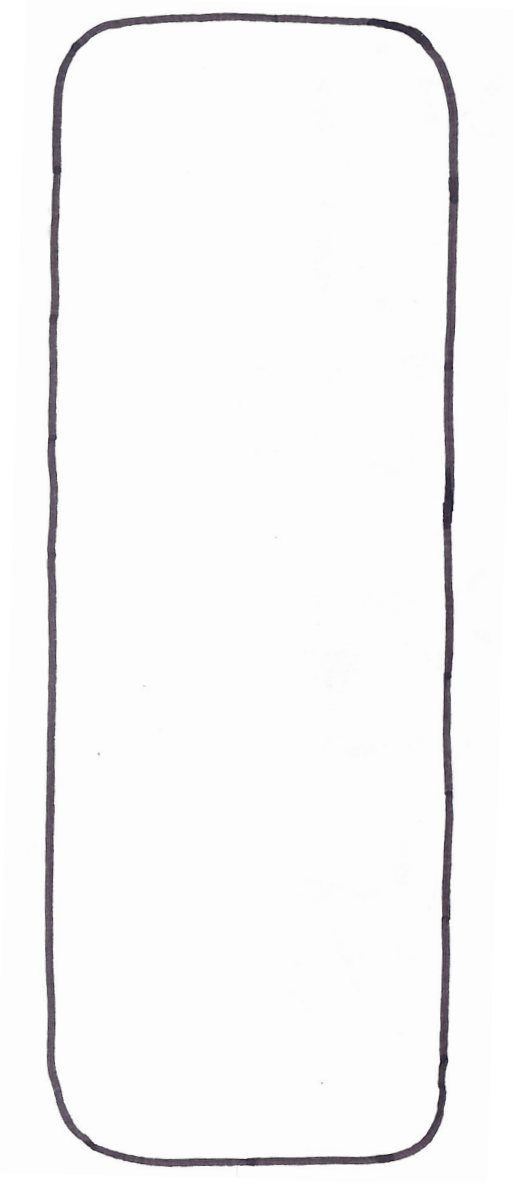

3. Cut your "headband" ribbon to the length you want it be, then make lines with your liquid glue in the shape of your headband. Lay the ribbon right onto the glue!
4. For the "scarf" ribbon, you can tie it if you like. You can apply glue to this ribbon and then stick it onto the bookmark.
5. Punch a hole in the top of the bookmark using a hole punch or a pencil, then loop a string through it. Tie the ends of the string and separate threads to make a tassel!
6. Glue the face to the bookmark.

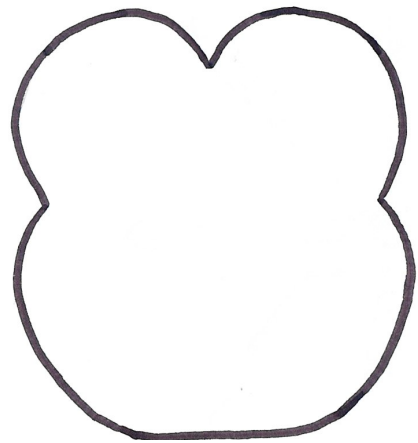

All Done!

TEMPLATES!

Cut out this bookmark template and trace it onto a piece of thin cardboard. Afterwards, cut out that piece of cardboard to use as your bookmark!

After cutting it out, draw eyes, a nose, and a mouth on this face and glue it onto your bookmark!
